POLICY FOR DETERMINATION OF MATERIALITY OF INFORMATION/EVENTS FOR DISCLOSURE TO THE STOCK EXCHANGES

1. Introduction

The Securities and Exchange Board of India (“SEBI”) notified the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) 2015 (“Regulations”) on September 2, 2015. The Regulations came into force from December 1, 2015. It is mandatory in terms of the Regulation 30 for every listed company to frame a policy for determination of materiality of information/events for the purpose of disclosing the same to the Stock Exchanges under the aforesaid regulation.

2. Preamble

The Board of Directors (the “Board”) of SoftTech Engineers Limited (“SoftTech” or the “Company”) approved the following policy for determination of materiality of Information/Events for Disclosure to the Stock Exchanges. This policy is effective from 3rd March, 2018 and shall be applicable for disclosures to be made by the Company effective this date. This Policy is subject to the Board’s review and changes, as may be appropriate, from time to time in conformity with the requirements of the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 (“Regulations”), as amended from time to time.

3. Objective

The objective of this Policy is to facilitate timely and adequate disclosure of information or events which are deemed to be unpublished price sensitive and have a bearing on performance or operations of the Company. This policy is based on the principles governing the disclosures as stated in the Regulations and further lays down the guidelines for determining the materiality thresholds with respect to certain events or information of the Company as permitted under the Regulations.

4. Definitions

6. Persons Responsible for disclosure

Pursuant to Regulation 30(5) of the Regulations, the Managing Director or the Chief Financial Officer be and are hereby severally authorized by the Board for the purpose of determining materiality of an event or information and for the purpose of making disclosures to the Stock Exchange(s) under the Policy. In their absence the Company Secretary be and is hereby authorized to determine materiality of an event or information for the purpose of making disclosures to stock exchange(s) under the Policy and Regulations.

7. Guidelines for determining Materiality

The Managing Director or CFO, Director, shall decide on the materiality of the event or information based on input received by them and the guidelines set in the guidance manual approved by the Board.

While determining the materiality of events/information, the following criteria will be considered:

(A) Qualitative criteria:

- i) the omission of an event or information, which is likely to result in discontinuity or alteration of event or information already available publicly; or
- ii) the omission of an event or information is likely to result in significant market reaction if the said omission came to light at a later date.

(B) Quantitative criteria:

The omission of an event or information, whose value or the expected impact in terms of value, exceeds the lower of the following:

- i) two percent of turnover, as per the last audited consolidated financial statements of the listed entity;
- ii) two percent of net worth, as per the last audited consolidated financial statements of the listed entity, except in case the arithmetic value of the net worth is negative;

iii) five percent of the average of absolute value of profit or loss after tax, as per the last three audited consolidated financial statements of the listed entity.

In case where the criteria specified above are not applicable, an event or information may be treated as being material if in the opinion of the board of directors of the listed entity, the event or information is considered material.

The relevant employees shall refer to the guidance note for identifying any potential material event or information, and reporting the same to Authorized Persons.

8. Guidance on when an event/information has occurred

- 8.1 An event/information can be said to have occurred
- a. In case of any discussions, negotiations or approval it would depend upon the stage of discussion, negotiation or approval.
 - b. in other instances where there is no such discussion, negotiation or approval required viz. in case of natural calamities, disruptions etc., it would depend upon the timing when the Company became aware of the event/information.
- 8.2 In the former [8.1(a)], the events/information can be said to have occurred upon receipt of approval of Board of Directors e.g. further issue of capital by rights issuance and in certain events/information after receipt of approval of both i.e. Board of Directors and Shareholders.
- However, considering the price sensitivity involved, for certain events e.g. decision on declaration of dividends etc., disclosure shall be made on receipt of approval of the event by the Board of Directors, pending Shareholder's approval.
- 8.3 In the latter [8.1(b)], the events/information can be said to have occurred when a listed entity becomes aware of the events/information, or as soon as, an officer of the entity has, or ought to have reasonably come into possession of the information in the course of the performance of his duties.

9. Obligations of Internal Stakeholders and KMPs for Disclosure

- a. Any event or information, including the information specified in Para A and Para B of Part A of Schedule III of the SEBI Listing Regulations shall be forthwith informed to the KMP(s) upon occurrence, with adequate supporting data/information, to facilitate a prompt and appropriate disclosure to the stock exchanges.
- b. The KMP(s) will then ascertain the materiality of such event(s) or information based on the above guidelines.
- c. On completion of the assessment, the KMP(s) shall, if required, make appropriate disclosure(s) to the stock exchanges.

10. Contents of communication

The Communication to stock exchanges and public dissemination may contain the minimum details that need to be provided as stipulated by Regulations from time to time. In case, the Company is unable to disclose any specific details for any reason as stipulated by Regulations, it can make the disclosure without such specific details provided an appropriate reasoning for the same forms part of the disclosure.

While care should be exercised in making adequate and appropriate disclosures, it should also be ensured that the disclosure does not result in establishing a false market for the Company's securities.

11. Updation

The Company shall, with respect to the disclosures made pursuant to this Policy, make disclosures updating material developments on a regular basis, till such time the event is resolved/closed, with relevant explanations therefore.

12. Manner of Disclosure

Any information to be disseminated is required to be given in a separate letter to Stock Exchange(s) and sent vide e-mail/ fax or posted on the electronic platform as specified by the stock exchanges. The Company shall also disclose on its website all such events or information which has been disclosed to stock exchange(s) under this Policy and, and such disclosures shall be hosted on the website of the Company for a minimum period of five years and thereafter as per the Company's Archival Policy, as disclosed on its website.

13. Policy Review

The KMP(s) may review the Policy from time to time. Material changes to the Policy will need the approval of the Board of Directors. Any subsequent amendment / modification in the Listing Regulations, Act and/or applicable laws in this regard shall automatically apply to this Policy.

14. Dissemination of the Policy
